

O'ahu

Destination Summary

O'ahu is the third largest Hawaiian island and is home to the majority of Hawai'i's diverse population. Known as "The Gathering Place", O'ahu is the perfect island to visit a fusion of east and west cultures rooted in the values and traditions of the Native Hawaiian people. O'ahu is primarily defined by the state capital of Honolulu, Pearl Harbor, and the famous beach known as Waikiki. O'ahu offers many ancient and modern attractions which makes discovering O'ahu so enjoyable.

Sample Itinerary:

Day One

Arrive into Honolulu International Airport (HNL). Be welcomed by the traditional Hawaiian Lei Meet and Greet by AlliedPRA Staff and a scenic VIP Transfer to Hotel. Enjoy the Retro Beach Bash Welcome Reception at the hotel into nightfall. Include a welcome amenity of an Aloha Basket for each room including local goodies, a tropical floral and beach essentials!

Day Two

Depart on a morning/afternoon O'ahu Circle Tour. On this tour, guests drive past Diamond Head Crater with fantastic views of the Pacific, cruise down the scenic windward coastline of O'ahu, past Hanauma Bay, and the Halona Blowhole into the rainforests of the Ko'olau Mountain and the Nu'uuanu Pali Lookout. This evening guests get the royal treatment with exclusive use of Iolani Palace for a spectacular dinner event.

Day Three

Enjoy the daytime activities of O'ahu. Guests may choose to take a Pearl Harbor & USS Missouri Tour, go to the Bishop Museum, discover Queen Emma's Summer Palace, try your hand at traditional outrigger canoe races on famous Waikiki Beach, visit the Polynesian Cultural Center, make a stop at Doris Duke's Shangri-La or explore the famous North Shore. End the day with a wonderful Gala Evening at the hotel with a nostalgic USO Theme & Show reminding guests of Honolulu and Pearl Harbor's storied history.

Day Four

Departure from Honolulu International Airport, coordinated by AlliedPRA Staff, includes a scenic VIP transfer to airport.

Maui

Destination Summary

As the second largest Hawaiian island, Maui enjoys a laid-back atmosphere with activities to fit any lifestyle. Maui is the perfect island for those looking for sophisticated diversions and amenities in the small towns and resorts throughout the island. Visitors and locals love taking part in Maui's world-class whale watching and exploring scenic slopes of upcountry Maui. A visit to Maui recharges the senses and makes an unforgettable stay away from home.

Sample Itinerary:

Day One

Arrive into Kahului International Airport (OGG). Be welcomed by the traditional Hawaiian Lei Meet and Greet by AlliedPRA Staff. Once settled at the hotel, guests are invited to 'Sail Away' into the sunset at the Evening Welcome Reception! Create a Maui Jim sunglass station at the Welcome Reception or in the Hospitality Suite where guests are fitted for custom sunglasses that they can use for the remainder of their stay in Maui!

Day Two

Take the journey of a lifetime to the town of Hana in East Maui. This breathtaking drive boasts (617) hair pin curves and (56) narrow one-lane bridges. Appreciate the scenic pineapple fields, spectacular cliffs, bamboo jungles, Hawaiian waterfalls, and tropical streams and pools. That evening, unwind and dine in at a casual and sophisticated evening at the Pacific'O Restaurant.

Day Three

Take pleasure in the daytime activities of Maui. Guests may opt to go bike riding down Haleakala, tour a local Lavender Farm, Sail to Lana'i, experience the Tropical Waterfall Hike or enjoy a tour of the Maui Winery. For the final night in Maui transform the hotel ballroom into an evening of Tropical Elegance sure to wow the group and leave a lasting impression of this trip to The Valley Isle.

Day Four

Departure from Kahului International Airport, coordinated by AlliedPRA Staff, includes a scenic VIP transfer to airport.

Kaua'i

Destination Summary

Kaua'i is the oldest and northernmost island in the Hawaiian chain. With the nickname "Garden Isle", Kaua'i is known for its growing tropical rainforests, forking rivers, and cascading waterfalls. Besides the unparalleled beauty the island offers, Kaua'i is home to a variety of outdoor activities. Kayaking, snorkeling, and ziplining are just some of the few activities that are ideal for visitors that want to indulge in the richness of Kaua'i.

Sample Itinerary:

Day One

Arrive into Lihue Airport (LIH). Be welcomed by the traditional Hawaiian Lei Meet and Greet by AlliedPRA Staff. This evening guests 'Go Green' at the Welcome Reception which incorporates many eco-friendly practices and decor. A flip-flop station where guests are fitted for custom high-end flip-flops may be added to the Welcome Reception or in the Hospitality Suite.

Day Two

Today guests enjoy a luxurious sail aboard a private catamaran followed by snorkeling. Kaua'i offers the oldest most protected reef ecosystems. Hundreds of species of fish can be found in these waters. Have an evening event at the Na'Aina Kai Botanical Gardens as a perfect way to end the day!

Day Three

Take delight in some of the activities Kaua'i provides to its visitors. Take a Helicopter tour and witness the beauty of Kaua'i in the air! Hike through the Wailua Falls. Take the challenge of the Paddleboard Yoga activity, or make beautiful leis that you can call your own. Come nightfall, make sure to head to the Secret Garden themed gala on-property for a wonderful Evening Gala.

Day Four

Departure from Lihue Airport, coordinated by AlliedPRA Staff, includes a scenic VIP transfer to airport.

Big Island (Hawai'i Island)

Destination Summary

With a size that is twice as big as all of the other Hawaiian Islands, the nickname "Big Island" is a well-deserved name for the Hawai'i Island. The sheer size of the island can be inspiring and breathtaking. There are two of the world's climatic zones found within the island shores of this single island, which homes many environments and activities. The island has everything from extravagant resorts and incredible golf courses to modest local towns and sacred Hawaiian historical sites.

Sample Itinerary:

Day One

Arrive into Kona International Airport (KOA). Be welcomed by the traditional Hawaiian Lei Meet and Greet by AlliedPRA Staff. Tonight guests are welcomed to the Islands with a lively reception serving traditional Hawaiian foods and showcasing the energetic entertainment and brightly colored linens and centerpieces. When guests return to their room they are greeted with a gift basket showcasing local Kona Coffee or handmade jewelry from the islands.

Day Two

During a visit to Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park guests see splendid native rainforest, visit a lava tube, discover remarkable volcanic formations and experience an incredible diversity of geography and climates. This evening the group enjoys a remarkable evening at the Lava Lava Beach club along the beachfront as a perfect way to end the day.

Day Three

Take on the day with fun and challenging activities the island provides. Guest may choose to zipline over river gorges, waterfalls, and tropical terrain, taste the Aloha Spirit in the Kona Beer Tasting, take the Kona Coffee Tour or appreciate the sea life and snorkel with the Manta Rays or visit the golfing areas of the Island. The program culminates this evening with a luxurious final night dinner on property at the hotel done in dramatic fire and ice theme.

Day Four

Departure from Kona International Airport, coordinated by AlliedPRA Staff, includes a scenic VIP transfer to airport.